

Rollers

A dry spreader has 2 rollers: Front Roller and Rear Roller. They are designed to fit conveyor chain used in NCI spreaders. There are 2 types of conveyor chain: Clinched Pin and Straight Pin. The standard conveyor on a NCI spreader will be either 24" or 16".

In addition to chain width and type, It is important to know what if your unit has a Rawson Gear Box and the size shaft in your roller when placing an order for replacement parts. The best way to ensure correct parts is to have your unit's serial number before calling the Parts Department.

Rear Rollers and Chain are NOT interchangeable.

Straight pin chain uses a roller with sprockets near the end of the roller. This is to engage the entire width of the chain.

Clinched pin chain uses a roller without sprockets near the end of the roller. This is to accommodate the curved ends of the chain.

The easiest way to determine the conveyor chain on your unit is to count the sprockets on the rear roller.
